

MAYOR WAS SAVED BY MECHANICIAN IN AUTO CRASH

Escaped With Slight Injuries,
Shielded by Attendant's
Protecting Arm.

Mayor McClellan walked with a limp today as the result of an automobile accident which came within a shade of being serious when, on Wednesday, the car in which he and Assistant Corporation Counsel Crowell were seated "side-swiped" a sand wagon blocking the road near Westbury, L. I.

Mr. Crowell, who was driving the auto at twenty miles an hour, averted the machine just in time to avoid a head-on collision with the sand truck, which had been obscured in a cloud of dust raised by another machine. Applying the brakes and throwing off the power, Mr. Crowell veered the car toward the rear end of the loaded sand wagon. The rear front wheel of the auto hit the wagon and crumpled, the machine coming to a stop with a jerk.

In the rumble of the car was Nelson Mombberger, a mechanic, who threw a protecting arm around the Mayor when a collision seemed inevitable. In the crash the tailboard of the sand wagon was carried away and struck the Mayor on the right leg and arm, inflicting painful injuries. No occupant of the car was thrown out.

The speeding of a car driven by Herman Brozell had frightened the horses attached to the sand wagon and the animals ran across the road, effectually blocking it as Mr. Crowell and the Mayor approached.

The action of Mr. Brozell in passing the car in which the Mayor and Mr. Crowell were seated is criticized as showing want of courtesy to the Mayor.

TRACHOMA GERM FOUND.

Prof. Greeff, Eye Specialist, Announces His Discovery.

BERLIN, March 26.—Prof. Richard Greeff, of the Berlin University Eye Hospital, announces the discovery of the germ of trachoma. The finding of this germ resulted from experiments with apes conducted with funds supplied by the German Government. Prof. Greeff announces also that the so-called Egyptian eye disease is contagious only in its first stages and that after treatment has begun the infectious germs disappear beneath the surface.

DIG UP A POT OF GOLD.

Hearing Dying Man's Story, Searchers Unearth $600.

KINGSTON, N. Y., March 25.—A pot of gold containing $600 in coin was today placed in the custody of Edward A. Kelly, administrator of the estate of the late Abram Kroos, of Port Ewen. It was dug up yesterday in the cellar of the house occupied by Kroos before his death. The dead man left no heirs and no will, but he told those in attendance when he died that he buried the gold in the cellar. A search for the treasure revealed it under several feet of sand in a corner of the cellar.

Spring Topcoats for Men

at $15 to $45

Few men are there who can afford to ignore the ethics of everyday business etiquette which requires a man to look his best—under all conditions and in every season.

A Topcoat is indispensable in this climate—and a distinctive garment as reasonably priced as one could wish is easy to obtain. All depends upon where you look for it.

Our assortments are liberal as to colorings, lavish as to models, perfect as to craftsmanship—every garment we show being created by our own designers and tailors.

We present a complete range of Spring colorings—grays in stripes, mixtures or plain predominating. Full, loose, "boxy" effects are the most favored.

Spring Suits for Young Men at $15

SIZES 30 TO 36

The truest test of a clothing maker's facilities may be found in what he can do at a given price.

It is no remarkable accomplishment to produce good clothes at fancy prices, but to create distinctive garments in which the materials, workmanship and finish are above reproach—and all at modest cost to the purchaser—is a noteworthy achievement.

We are perfectly willing to rest our claim for your patronage upon the merits of our Suits for Young Men at $15—a decidedly "medium" price for garments of pronounced distinction and entirely new models.
